Description	On November 3, 2019, the Women Empowerment Club launched a compelling Social Awareness campaign titled "Empower Girls, Empower the Future: A Campaign to Save Girl Children." Recognizing the persistent challenges faced by girls in many communities, the campaign aimed to raise awareness about gender inequality, advocate for the rights of girl children, and promote their empowerment. The initiative included engaging workshops, seminars, and awareness sessions addressing issues such as education barriers, child marriage, and gender-based discrimination. The Women Empowerment Club collaborated with local schools and community organizations to reach a broader audience, emphasizing the importance of investing in girls' education and creating opportunities for their personal and professional growth. The campaign also incorporated interactive activities to challenge stereotypes and inspire confidence in young girls. Through media outreach and community events, the Women Empowerment Club aimed to instill a sense of collective responsibility in society, urging everyone to contribute to creating a more inclusive and equitable environment for girl children. "Empower Girls, Empower the Future" stood as a powerful testament to the club's dedication to fostering positive change and breaking down barriers to girls' progress and success.

Organized by	Women Empowerment Club
Description	On October 18, 2019, the Women Empowerment Club illuminated a path towards change with the "Diya Lighting for Awareness on Women Empowerment" event, promoting social awareness and solidarity in the community. In a symbolic gesture, participants lit diyas, representing the collective effort to bring light to the lives of women and advocate for their empowerment. The event aimed to shed light on the challenges faced by women, fostering awareness about gender equality, education, and economic opportunities. Inspirational speakers shared stories of empowerment, encouraging the community to recognize and support the potential of every woman. The Women Empowerment Club utilized the visual impact of the diya lighting to draw attention to the need for inclusivity and equal rights. Attendees engaged in discussions, workshops, and interactive activities to deepen their understanding of women's issues and explore avenues for positive change. Through this event, the Women Empowerment Club not only illuminated the importance of women's empowerment but also ignited a flame of consciousness within the community, inspiring a commitment to dismantling barriers and championing the rights and potential of every woman.

Organized by	NSS Committee
Description	On September 25, 2019, the NSS Committee organized a significant Social Awareness event to celebrate Pharmacist Day, recognizing the invaluable contributions of pharmacists to healthcare. The event aimed to raise awareness about the crucial role pharmacists play in ensuring the safe and effective use of medications. Educational sessions were conducted to inform the community about the responsibilities of pharmacists, including dispensing medications, providing counseling on drug usage, and promoting health and wellness. The NSS Committee collaborated with local pharmacists to organize workshops on medication safety, proper storage, and the importance of adherence to prescribed treatments. Additionally, the event highlighted the evolving role of pharmacists in healthcare systems, emphasizing their involvement in patient care, disease management, and public health initiatives. Through interactive activities, the NSS Committee sought to bridge the gap between the community and pharmacists, fostering a better understanding of their vital role in promoting health outcomes. Pharmacist Day, organized by the NSS Committee, served as a platform to express gratitude to pharmacists while promoting awareness and appreciation for their significant contributions to the healthcare sector.

Name of Activity	Menstrual hygiene
Type of Activity	Social Awareness
Date and Time of Activity	25/5/2019
Details of Participants	23
Organized by	NSS Committee
Description	On May 25, 2019, the NSS Committee initiated an essential Social Awareness campaign titled "Menstrual Hygiene," aiming to break the silence surrounding menstruation and promote open discussions about menstrual health. Recognizing the cultural stigmas and taboos associated with menstruation, the campaign sought to create a safe and inclusive space for dialogue. The NSS Committee organized informative sessions, workshops, and interactive discussions to dispel myths, educate participants about menstrual hygiene, and address the challenges faced by individuals during their periods. Collaborating with healthcare professionals, the event provided accurate information about the biological aspects of menstruation and emphasized the importance of destigmatizing this natural bodily function. Furthermore, the campaign distributed menstrual hygiene kits to promote proper sanitation practices, especially in marginalized communities. "Period Talks" was a step towards normalizing conversations about menstruation, empowering individuals to embrace their reproductive health with dignity. Through this initiative, the NSS Committee contributed to fostering a more understanding and supportive community, breaking down barriers and challenging the societal norms that perpetuate menstrual taboos.
